

2AM – Mirage

by Marlene Caduff

Verse 1

When the sky turns green
And the grass turns red
It feels like a dream
Or maybe like a threat

When the sun turns blue
And the moon shines black
Who knows what's true
Shall we take a step back

Pre-Chorus 1

Is it dangerous or a trap
Shall we protect what we had

Is it dangerous or a trap
Is it time to adapt

Chorus

Beautiful illusion
Leads to diffusion
Mirage
Let's fall in love

Illusion
Leads to diffusion
Mirage
Let's fall in love

Verse 2

When the water turns white
And the air turns pink
Swallowed by the night
We are on the brink

When the depths seem bright
And the strange feels wise
Let's step into the light
And let the waters rise

Pre-Chorus 2

Is it dangerous or a trap
Is it a gift to unwrap

Is it dangerous or a trap
To change a world that's intact

Repeat Chorus

Bridge

Believe in love, believe in fate
Free your mind, you will be safe
Feel the power, feel the strength
Let it happen, don't miss the chance

Repeat Chorus
