by 2AM

Verse 1

Red light in Tokyo
Pretty girl in a kimono
Walking through the gate
She takes the stairs up to the shrine
Yes, she's going to the shrine

Chorus

She's far, far away from home
And feels a bit lost in Tokyo
She's far, far away from home

Verse 2

Gray clouds over Tokyo
They say a storm is coming on the radio
Getting away from here
He takes the bullet train out of town
Yes, he should leave the city now

Chorus

He's far, far away from home
And feels a bit lost in Tokyo

Verse 3

Miles away from Tokyo
We marvel at the fumes of Mount Aso
Hot springs under coppery leaves
This town is deep asleep right now
The city's calling ow, ow, wow

Chorus

We're far, far away from home
And feel a bit lost in Tokyo
We're far, far away from home
Oh, when you're

Bridge

far from home
All you need is a smiling face, a familiar place
Where you understand
Every word written or said, good and bad, yeah

Chorus

We're far, far away from home
And feel a bit lost in Tokyo
We're far, far away from home
So far away, far away
We're far, far away from home
And feel a bit lost in Tokyo
We're far, far away from home

Outro

Red light in Tokyo shines far away from home
